Notes: Washington Regional Medical Center has provided this file to assist the consumer in identifying in advance the standard charges associated with 300 services at their facility. The information listed for each service reflects the standard charge, discounted cash price (the charge that applied to an individual who pays cash or cash equivalent), and the payer-specific negotiated charge (the charge that the hospital has negotiated with a third party payer for the service).

This information is provided to be a guide to determine anticipated charges. The information is not a contractual agreement between the hospital and the consumer. Individual costs will be based on specific services provided. We advise the consumer consult with their health insurer to confirm individual payment responsibilities and remaining deductible balances.

associated with 300 services at their facility. The information listed for each service reflects the standard charge, discounted cash price (the charge that applied to an individual who pays cash or cash equivalent), and the payer-specific negotiated charge (the charge that the hospital has negotiated with a third party payor for the service).

This information is provided to be a guide to determine anticipated charges. The information is not a contractual agreement between the hospital and the consumer. Individual costs will be based on specific services provided. We advise the consumer consult with their health insurer to confirm individual payment responsibilities and remaining deductible balances.

associated with 300 services at their facility. The information listed for each service reflects the standard charge, discounted cash price (the charge that applied to an individual who pays cash or cash equivalent), and the payer-specific negotiated charge (the charge that the hospital has negotiated with a third party payor for the service).

This information is provided to be a guide to determine anticipated charges. The information is not a contractual agreement between the hospital and the consumer. Individual costs will be based on specific services provided. We advise the consumer consult with their health insurer to confirm individual payment responsibilities and remaining deductible balances.

associated with 300 services at their facility. The information listed for each service reflects the standard charge, discounted cash price (the charge that applied to an individual who pays cash or cash equivalent), and the payer-specific negotiated charge (the charge that the hospital has negotiated with a third party payor for the service).

This information is provided to be a guide to determine anticipated charges. The information is not a contractual agreement between the hospital and the consumer. Individual costs will be based on specific services provided. We advise the consumer consult with their health insurer to confirm individual payment responsibilities and remaining deductible balances.

associated with 300 services at their facility. The information listed for each service reflects the standard charge, discounted cash price (the charge that applied to an individual who pays cash or cash equivalent), and the payer-specific negotiated charge (the charge that the hospital has negotiated with a third party payor for the service).

This information is provided to be a guide to determine anticipated charges. The information is not a contractual agreement between the hospital and the consumer. Individual costs will be based on specific services provided. We advise the consumer consult with their health insurer to confirm individual payment responsibilities and remaining deductible balances.
